

IN MEMORY OF LIGHT

IN MEMORY OF LIGHT // A GROUP SHOW

5 March – 13 March 2010 12-6pm

Private view : 4 March 6 – 9pm

Location : Kingsgate Gallery, 110 -116 Kingsgate Road, London NW6 2JG

The exhibitors :

An international group of multidisciplinary artists, whose work has been shown and collected worldwide (London, New York, Paris, Barcelona, Istanbul, Cape Town). With a diverse cultural heritage, and an age range spanning forty years, a wealth of personal experience informs their work. This high calibre group also includes art award and residency winners. It is an exciting opportunity to view the artists' current practice at a transformative point in their professional creative development. All exhibitors are post-graduate students of the Byam Shaw School of Art, at Central Saint Martin's.

For more information about the exhibits and participants, please visit:

www.inmemoryoflight.co.uk

Byam Shaw (Central Saint Martins) :

Founded by the artists, John Byam Shaw and Rex Vicat Cole in 1910 as a school of drawing and painting, Byam Shaw School of Art retains its focus on the study of Fine Art. Prominent alumni include Matthew Collings (Art critic), James Dyson (Industrial designer, founder of Dyson Industries), and Mona Hatoum (Video and installation artist). Notable alumni of Central Saint Martin's include Lucian Freud, and Frank Auerbach.

The Gallery :

Kingsgate Gallery (www.kingsgateworkshops.org.uk) is located in a converted West Hampstead 19th century warehouse. Visit the exhibition website for map, directions and details www.inmemoryoflight.co.uk

University of the Arts London
Central
Saint Martins

kingsgate workshops trust
mail@kingsgateworkshops.org.uk www.kingsgateworkshops.org.uk

sponsored by
H2 INDUSTRIES